We're so glad you're here!

God created humanity for greatness and calls each of us to continually grow in holiness. This is no small task and something we can't do on our own. So Jesus gave us the Church and its many treasures to guide us; providing a perfect road map to salvation. It's my prayer that everyone comes to know the truth of the gospel.

I want to take this opportunity to personally invite you to grow deeper in your faith, and allow myself, and the many other professionals and volunteers at SHOJ to assist you however we can; let's help each other get to heaven. You can't do it without the Church, and we can't do it without YOU.

Our doors are open to any and all who desire to hear the truth in a loving and peaceful setting. As a physician of souls, I care deeply about your well-being, and want to help you stay spiritually healthy. If it's been awhile since you've had a "checkup," come on in and we'll chat. If there's anything else we can do for you, please ask.

I look forward to ministering to you as your spiritual Father.

In Peace,
Fr. Pat Sullivan

Let the Holy Spirit show you how you were made for love or unity or eternity. Allow him to speak to you through scripture. Go ahead and ask!

In Sympathy:

Let us remember in our prayers the repose of the soul of Sherry Richard, Wife of Marc Richard of our Parish.

Reflect on the Word

First Reading: We hear how through the prayers of Peter and John the Holy Spirit descended upon those Samaritans who believed in Jesus and were baptized. Can you think of a time when your prayers were answered?

Second Reading: Peter taught his community to be prepared to defend their faith with gentleness and reverence even in a hostile environment. Have you ever had to explain what you believe to someone arguing with you?

Gospel: Jesus assured his disciples, "I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you." When do you experience Jesus' presence in your life?

Happy Mother's Day!

Transitional Diaconate for Aaron Waldeck

Come help us celebrate with Aaron Waldeck as he is ordained a Transitional Deacon on May 20 at 10:30 a.m. at Sacred Heart! There will be a reception for the ordination immediately following in the MPC.

On Sunday, May 21, Aaron will deacon his First Mass at 11:00 a.m. at Sacred Heart with Fr. Keith Chadwick as celebrant and our Pastor, Fr. Pat Sullivan, as con-celebrant. We will host a parish reception to celebrate Deacon Aaron in our Meeting Rooms immediately following this Mass. This ordination to the Transitional Diaconate will mark the one year point for Aaron's journey into the priesthood which will culminate in May of 2024 when he is ordained a priest. Aaron says, "I want to be a priest because I believe God is calling me to it and for the salvation of souls. I have a love for the sacraments which was fostered very much by my high school and college experiences and want to celebrate them. To answer "yes" to the call is assenting to a heroic call, and I want to be able to stand up and say "yes" to God's prompt: "come and follow me!"

Gospel Meditation

6th Sunday of Easter

My dad was adopted as a baby. It's a big part of my family's story. His birth mother placed him in a Catholic orphanage not long after birth. A young couple longing for a baby strolled among the bassinets. My father, then only a few months old, looked at the husband and smiled. The man said, "That's my son." They took him home and the family grew. This moment of adoption was a wonderful truth they celebrated even when my dad was a young boy. They told him, "You're even more special than the other children, because we chose you to be our son." My dad's eyes well up with tears of gratitude whenever he tells the story, even eighty-three years later.

What is your story? Do we think or act like unwanted orphans? Who do we believe ourselves to be? As we continue to ponder Jesus' resurrection, we hear him say to us this Sunday, "I will not leave you orphans." God doesn't leave us alone like spiritual orphans. The power that raised Jesus from the dead is the Holy Spirit, who is also called the Spirit of Adoption. He chooses us to be His children, to share God's life forever. He gives us a future filled with hope.

We are not orphans anymore! This Easter, that's the story we should share with others. It's the true story we are living right now.

Thursday we had a chance to celebrate our volunteers. Sacred Heart is beyond blessed by these beautiful souls. Father gave a blessing to all those in attendance, and many were able to stay after for coffee and donuts. Those here and so many others gather together to share in the mission of loving and serving at the school named for His Most Sacred Heart. We are grateful.

Volunteers Needed - Shalom House Dinner Ministry

Catholic Charities is seeking volunteers to support the residents of Shalom House – our men's transitional living program – by providing dinner throughout the week. This opportunity is for individuals, families or groups to commit to prepare and deliver a nutritious meal. Volunteers are encouraged – but not required – to serve and eat with residents (must be 18 or older to serve and eat with residents). Our Dinner Ministry is 100% volunteer driven and we are grateful of the care and effort that our volunteers make to ensure our brothers are nourished. Everyday Stewardship Recognize God in your Everyday Moments

Weirdly Christian

For some time, I have worn a brown scapular. If you don't know much about this devotional practice, here is a very quick-and-dirty version, greatly lacking in detail: it's two little pieces of brown cloth, connected by a cord and worn around the neck beneath one's clothing. One of the cloth pieces depicts Our Lady of Mount Carmel appearing to St. Simon Stock, and the other piece — the one that is sometimes visible at the nape of my neck — depicts Our Lady's "scapular promise:" "Whosoever dies clothed in this Scapular shall not suffer eternal fire."

This reflection is not about the brown scapular, but let me just quickly say that, while I believe the scapular promise, I do not view the scapular as a get-out-of-jail-free card, and neither does the Church. I don't wear it for the purpose of avoiding eternal fire. I wear it as a reminder to myself of my Marian consecration and as an act of humility and prayer.

I have sometimes cringed at the thought of how it looks to the person standing behind me in line at the coffee shop, should they happen to glimpse my scapular and read its brazen promise. We don't go in for talk of hellfire and salvation in polite society these days. I wonder if they think I'm a crazy person. I wonder if I should try to tuck the scapular back down below my collar.

Sometimes I do. But more often than not, I take a deep breath and decide that it's okay for me to feel self-conscious and trust that, if God wants to use this moment for His glory, he will — and if He doesn't, all I've lost is the esteem of others, which isn't worth that much to begin with.

I've always heard it said that if you do Christianity right, the rest of the world should think you're just a little bit weird.

"...the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot accept, because it neither sees nor knows him." — John 14:17

Q&A and Weekly Financials

Why do we do that?

Catholic Life Explained

Question: The Bible says that Jesus condemned gambling, but I notice that so many parishes have them at festivals and other events. What's correct?

Answer: Although Jesus speaks of our relationship with material wealth and the very human struggle with greed, the gospels do not include any specific instructions related to gambling. At the same time, the Church is very sensitive to the needs of those who might struggle with an addiction to gambling, and pastoral care should always be offered to those who struggle with this reality in their life.

While it is true that many parish or school communities include gambling or games of chance in festivals and fundraisers (e.g. bingo, roulette, ring tossing, dunking booths, etc.), there is nothing inherently wrong with these sorts of events, given they are played fairly and within the limits of reason are not morally objectionable. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us: "Games of chance (card games, etc.) or wagers are not in themselves contrary to justice. They become morally unacceptable when they deprive someone of what is necessary to provide for his needs and those of others" (no. 2413).

As in all things, moderation and a sense of healthy limits should be applied to gambling and games of chance. For those who find themselves living with addiction to gambling, help is available in various 12-step and addiction recovery programs.

Parish Weekly Financials

Announcement:

Our fiscal year ends on June 30. Starting July 1, our weekly need will be $53,000 which is a 1.9% increase over this year's weekly need. Historically, we see a tremendous dip in tithing during the summer months which causes us to play catch up all year long. We would love to see that not happen this year and as you prepare to head out of town for vacations and activities, sign up for recurring donations or remember to send in an online donation via our website or drop a check in the mail, as our parish expenses continue twelve months out of the year. We are so grateful for your generosity!

Around the Archdiocese & Kids Korner

May is Foster Care Awareness Month

Every child is a unique and precious gift from God who deserves a loving family. Sadly, every day in Kansas, children are removed from their homes for a variety of reasons and through no fault of their own. Right now in Kansas there are roughly 7,000 children in care, coming from all backgrounds and from every community. Many have experienced trauma and are frightened and lonely.

Archbishop Naumann says, "To be truly pro-life, we must make sure that every child has an environment where he or she can thrive." Foster parents open their hearts and homes helping children heal, trust, and hope again. Currently there are only approximately 2,700 licensed foster families in Kansas. The Church is the solution! Everyone can help – either by becoming a foster family, supporting the families who do foster, donating necessities or gifts for children, or mentoring teens who are aging out of the system. Please visit www.archkcks.com/foster to learn more.

Sacred Heart has it's own Foster Care Ministry and you can sign up for CarePortal, which sends emails about local financial/material needs to keep children from having to enter foster care, to help foster families, or to help children reintegrate with their biological families.
