Gospel Meditation

The 6th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Recently I had a skin rash, and it was awful. (Please don't tell anyone.) I am embarrassed to admit that I didn't handle it well. Complaining, whining, begging for sympathy, and crying were my responses to the merciless itching and burning. In the aftermath, a silver lining emerged. I feel a new heartfelt sympathy for all those vexed with chronic skin problems. If you've ever had a seemingly unending skin problem, you know how that sympathy flows up from deep inside.

This gut-level compassion is something like what the Gospel describes in Jesus when the sore-covered leper says, "If you will it, you can make me clean." At this, just before the healing, Jesus was "moved with compassion." The Greek word used here is strong and earthy, closer to "his bowels and guts trembled with the deepest emotions of sadness, pity, and love." In Jesus,

God heals our infirmities not from a divine distance but by learning what it feels like to be us. He acquires first-hand experience of what it costs us to be afflicted and still be faithful to God. He sympathizes with the burning, itching, and blistering of human existence in the deepest, first-hand way. To discover that is to touch Jesus' heart.

What in your life, right now, is breaking out like diseased skin? What is getting worse the more you try to soothe it? Perhaps only you feel it. Or maybe it's exposed to all. A bad habit, broken relationship, loneliness, fear of failure, self-hatred? Name it, and then find a way to bring it confidently to Jesus who will feel what we are feeling, and thereby heal us.

— Father John Muir

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained Gossiping

Question: Is gossip a mortal sin? Answer: To really ask this question, we must consider the Eighth Commandment: "You shall not bear false witness." In its reflections on this commandment, The Catechism of the Catholic Church invites us to not only think about what bearing "false witness" means, but to also consider how we understand the truth and how we communicate more broadly. This is why so much of this section of the Catechism has to do with the gift of language. With this in mind, we will notice that the word "gossip" isn't used by the Catechism. Instead, we find the words "detraction" and "calumny," which are actually two forms that gossip can take, and both can be quite serious. First, detraction is the of revealing "another's faults and failings to persons who did not know them," without morally valid reasons. Calumny, by extension, is saying something about another person that is untrue, and it is sinful because it "harms the reputation of others and gives occasion for false judgements" (see no. 2477). In all of our communication, we have to always recognize that we have a moral obligation to the truth and to always work to protect the reputation and honor of our neighbors (see no. 2479). Gossip can, in fact, prove to be a very serious sin. The Catechism reminds us: "No one is bound to reveal the truth to someone who does not have the right to know it" (no. 2489). When we have gossiped, especially if we are aware we have damaged another person's good name or reputation, we want to make every effort to undo the damage we have done, including seeking the grace and forgiveness offered in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

2023-24 GROWING IN VIRTUE WITH INFINITE GRACE

Sacred Heart of Jesus Catholic School students love life.

Each year, our 8th graders make a pilgrimage to Topeka to uphold the call to protect the right to life. This year, at the Ignite Pro Love Rally For Life, they attended Mass and listened to speakers who shared their witness. John O'Leary, a burn victim, gave attendees a new way to think about what it means when we, as a Church, say we are Pro-Life.

Recognize God in your Ordinary Moments Sin and Loneliness

When I was in high school, we read "The Metamorphosis" by Franz Kafka. It's a depressing little novella about a man who (spoiler alert!) turns into a cockroach and dies of neglect, his family gradually ceasing to recognize the creature he has become. "Never underestimate how badly human beings need touch," our teacher told us. "Without each other, we curl up and die." Our need for communion with each other is written into our biology — breathing and heart rate of newborns regulates when they lie against the skin of their mothers, and we instinctively reach out to embrace someone who has been wounded. But it is also written into our souls. Consider the early days of the pandemic, and the emotional starvation we all experienced, prevented from gathering in groups to worship, to celebrate and to mourn. And when we did encounter other people, we kept a mutual distance. "I feel like a leper," we grumbled to our families when we returned home, because we finally understood it: the real tragedy of leprosy is not pain and disfigurement. The real tragedy of leprosy is loneliness. "If you wish, you can make me clean," begged the leper as he knelt before Christ (Mark 1:40). He wasn't begging for deliverance from pain and disfigurement. He was begging for deliverance from isolation.

"If you wish, you can make me clean," we beg God in confession, not because we are physically withering and dying but because we are so desperate to once again be held in His embrace. "Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand, touched him, and said to him, 'I do will it. Be made clean.'" — Mark 1:41

Eucharistic Revival

From Sister Alicia Torres, F.E.

Managing Editor of the Eucharistic Revival Newsletter

Dear Friends,

We are less than one week away from Ash Wednesday and the holy season of Lent! As we consider how the Lord is inviting us to grow in relationship with him and one another over these coming forty days, I want to share with you briefly what you can look forward to in Heart of the Revival:

Lenten Eucharistic Prayer Companions: Thank you to Sr. Maria Miguel, OP, and Sr. Anamargarita, SCTJM, for prayerfully preparing these beautiful prayer guides that will help us grow closer to Jesus during Eucharistic Adoration and connect our time of quiet prayer before the Blessed Sacrament with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Meditations include Scripture passages from the Sunday Masses during Lent and prompts to help us unite our own offerings to the offering of Jesus at Mass. Finally, we'll receive encouragement to practice a spiritual work of mercy in our daily lives!

Spiritual Works of Mercy and the Eucharist Series: Each week of Lent we'll feature a reflection from different voices across the Church on one of the Spiritual Works of Mercy, showing how it is rooted in the saving work of Jesus accomplished through the Paschal Mystery, which we relive at every Mass.

More Testimonies: Each newsletter will highlight a short testimony from ordinary Catholics who are living Eucharistic Revival. We'll also post more full-length interviews on our blog!

The National Eucharistic Congress is just five months away, and in about three months the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage will launch with pilgrims from across the country traveling on four routes that will converge in Indianapolis on July 16, the eve of the Congress! I am committed to making this newsletter and our weekly newsreel, The Pulse, resources you can depend on in the exciting weeks and months ahead.
