Gospel Meditation

The First Sunday of Lent

When I feel down, I sometimes watch the famous "Double Rainbow" video on YouTube to feel better. It's hilarious. A young man camping in Yosemite Park sees two rainbows stretching across the sky. He bursts into a kind of ecstasy. "Double rainbow, all the way! Oh my God!" he announces. Then he starts to weep. He cries out, "What does it mean?" Beneath the humor of his glorious overreaction is the deep intuition we all have, I think, when we see the colorful bow in the sky. This Sunday, God sends a rainbow to Noah, and to us. What does it mean?

Long before YouTube had the double rainbow, Dante's medieval poem The Divine Comedy featured one in his image of paradise. Seeing two rainbows, he muses that one is born of the other. The bow is God's promise of peace. For Dante, it's even more: nature's encrypted image of the Trinitarian God. One visible rainbow (God the Son) is begotten of another usually invisible one (God the Father) united by invisible light between them (God the Spirit). Like invisible light, Trinitarian glory surrounds us in every moment — but Jesus has made it visible in his glorious body.

Lenten challenge: This might seem silly, but this Lent I invite you to find a rainbow and meditate on it. You might have to make one yourself, like this current desert-dweller will. Gaze on it. See there a natural gift from the Creator, saying to you, "Here I am! I will love and protect you, surrounding you in My glory." This Lent let's embrace that with confidence, rain, or shine.

"HAVE NO ANXIETY AT ALL, BUT IN EVERYTHING, BY PRAYER AND PETITION, WITH THANKSGIVING MAKE YOUR REQUEST KNOWN TO GOD."

Rite of Sending Celebrated this Weekend

This Rite offers the parish community an opportunity to acknowledge the spiritual progress the catechumens and candidates have made, express approval of their election or recognition and send them forth to the Archbishop for the Rite of Election this evening which Sacred Heart will host this year. At the Rite of Election, catechumens (those preparing for Baptism) are invited to come forward and sign the "Book of the Elect" as a sign of their desire to be numbered among the chosen people of God. Baptized candidates will celebrate the RCIA Rite of "Call to Continuing Conversion", encouraging them to hear the Lord's call to continued conversion and to be faithful to their baptismal covenant. The elect and candidates are thereby moved by these Rites into a final period of intense spiritual preparation leading up to the celebration of the Sacraments at Easter.

Please keep our catechumens (Alexa Aylward, Lance Dixson, Seth Dixson, Nicole Mayfield and Allie Pecina) and candidates (Jenifer Barney, Maddi Barney, Brian Bosak, Dawn Classen, Grace Deneke, Nick Guess, Curt Janke, Ryan Kelly, Vicky Kelley, Angelo Reffett, Scott Seyller, Danielle Small, Cameron White, Conner White, Maitland Wiltse, and Casey Zillner) in your prayers as they continue this important journey.

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained Vestment Colors

Question: What do the colors of the priest's and deacon's vestments mean?

Answer: In the Roman Rite of the Catholic Church, the colors of the vestments evolved over the course of several centuries and there was wide variation both in the colors used, and in the feasts and seasons associated with particular colors. It was Pope Innocent III (d. 1216) who gave us the basic outline that was later prescribed by Pope Saint Pius V in 1570. The various colors remind us of the dominant themes of a particular season or celebration.

- White: Used for the seasons of Christmas and Easter and in celebrations of the Lord, of Mary, the angels, and saints who were not martyrs. This color is also used in Masses for the dead, at baptisms, weddings and other festive events
- Red: As the color of both blood and fire, red is used on Palm Sunday and Good Friday, as well as Pentecost and special celebrations of the Holy Spirit. Moreover, red is used on the feasts/memorials of the Apostles/saints who died as martyrs.
- Violet: The color for Advent and Lent. Violet may also be used in Masses for the dead and on All Souls Day (Nov. 2).
- Green: A color of life and hope, green is used throughout Ordinary Time.

Other colors: Rose may be used on the Third Sunday of Advent and the Fourth Sunday of Lent, black may be used in Masses of the dead and on All Souls Day, gold or silver may be used on solemn occasions in place of white, red, or green.

A Note from Pastor - Facility Master Planning Committee

Dear Sacred Heart Parishioners:

I want to share some exciting news with you! It became known through the Parish Planning Workshop held in September 2023, the desire to re-visit our facility master plan. Since the plan was 20 years old, I sought permission from the Archbishop for the ability to pursue an updated facility master plan to make sure we understand the current and future needs of our parish community. He has given us the green light.

We have formed a Facility Master Planning Committee (FMPC) and they will begin to meet at the end of this month. They will be charged with assessing our entire campus, interviewing and selecting an architect firm to help guide us through this master plan process and approving the final master plan.

Throughout this year-long process, the FMPC will seek parishioner input in various ways: sub-committees, focus groups, surveys, town hall meetings and visioning sessions. Once the schedule has been set (tentatively for late summer/early Fall), we will communicate those opportunities to the parish at large to be sure all voices are heard.

Please pray for the FMPC members and for our parish community as we embark on this journey!

In Christ,

Fr. Zarse

Recognize God in your Ordinary Moments Lent and the Flood

I would bet money that somewhere in your church this Lent, there's a bare tree branch draped in purple fabric and an empty bowl filled with rocks.

I'm not poking fun, the desert imagery that surrounds the season of Lent isn't a cliché — or if it is, it's only because clichés are essentially true. Lent is the dessert. Lent is the wilderness. Lent is the time of less.

But what if Lent was also the flood? It seems counterintuitive, floods are excessive, and we don't think of Lent as a time for superabundance. Lent is when we limit experiences outside of ourselves in order to limit proclivities within ourselves. Lent is not a time for anything to be washing over us, consuming us, carrying us away on a tide.

Unless...it is. Consider the flood of the Old Testament. An act of destruction, yes, but also an act of purification. An endurance test for the soul, an epic trust fall exercise between God and Noah in which Noah had to ride the literal waves, clinging to life as God wiped away everything familiar. Everything sinful.

In Lent, we relinquish our weaknesses and our infirmities to the flood. It's frightening, certainly. But it's also exciting. Because just as the flood destroys everything, it also makes everything possible. It is a baptism.

Lent, like the flood, makes the world new. "Put to death in the flesh, he was brought to life in the Spirit." — 1 Peter 3:18

Eucharistic Revival

From Sister Alicia Torres, F.E.

Managing Editor of the Eucharistic Revival Newsletter

Dear Friends,

Have you ever wondered about mercy—I mean, really wondered?

When I was a young child, my mother developed a strong devotion to the Divine Mercy, and we regularly prayed the Chaplet at home. I learned about the life of St. Faustina and how much Jesus loves us, who are all poor sinners in need of mercy.

When I was in the eighth grade, I asked the sisters at our school if we could pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet in the chapel at 3 p.m. on Fridays. They said yes.

I had hoped that my classmates would all show up en masse. Instead, the greatest presence was from the younger children, especially the sixth-grade class, who faithfully came every Friday. Although I was crestfallen over the lack of participation from my friends, I was very encouraged by how the youngsters in our school came each week without fail to pray before the silent presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, hidden in the tabernacle, asking God to have mercy on us and on the whole world.

Lent is just as much a festival of mercy as it is a season of love. There is no place on earth where we meet God, who is Love and Mercy, more powerfully than in the Eucharist. And from this profound summit, we receive the very sustenance necessary to share God's merciful love with the whole world.

Heart of the Revival will mark these coming weeks of Lent with our new series, Spiritual Works of Mercy and the Eucharist, helping each of us make concrete connections between the source and summit of our Faith and our call to "Be merciful, just as [our] Father is merciful" (Lk 6:36).

Here is a list of the spiritual works of mercy:

Pray for the Living and the Dead
Admonish the Sinner
Bear Wrongs Patiently
Instruct the Ignorant
Counsel the Doubtful
Comfort the Sorrowful
Forgive Injuries

You can learn more about each Work of Mercy online. We begin this week with "pray for the living and the dead."

As we remain united in prayer before the Holy Eucharist this Lent—both at Mass and in adoration—let's allow the Lord Jesus to deepen our dedication to living these Works of Mercy.

THIRST FOR RIGHTEOUS-
