ANNUAL MARITAL HEALTH SURVEY

Dear Married Couples,

Fr. Zarse kindly asks all married couples in our parish to complete a brief Marital Health Survey by September 21. This short annual survey helps us better understand how our parish programs are supporting and strengthening marriages. Last September, we invited all adults to complete a similar survey, and we are committed to measuring progress each year. Your honest feedback allows us to continue building a vibrant and faith-filled community where marriages can thrive. As a reminder, research supports the idea that 8 hours a year of some sort of marriage enrichment—such as attending workshops, retreats, or counseling—has a positive impact on marital health. Starting October 6, we will be offering the Marriage Course again. For more details or to register, click here.

Thank you for your time and commitment!

WHY READ THE BIBLE?

Fr. Zarse explains why he views Scripture as love letters and why it's important to read the Bible.

SUNDAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING:

The LORD has sworn by the pride of Jacob:
Never will I forget a thing they have done!
(Amos 8:4-7)

PSALM:

Praise the Lord who lifts up the poor.
(Psalm 113)

SECOND READING:

For there is one God. There is also one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, who gave himself as ransom for all.
(1 Timothy 2:1-8)

GOSPEL:

The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones; and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones. If, therefore, you are not trustworthy with dishonest wealth, who will trust you with true wealth?
If you are not trustworthy with what belongs to another, who will give you what is yours? No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and mammon."
(Luke 16:10-13)
